

DR. HATCHER TO PAY.

MR. TODD SAYS HE WILL PERMIT HIM TO DO SO.

No Motion for a New Trial Yet Made—Rumor That the Lady Who Made Remark About Mrs. Hatcher Has Been Found.

The attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Todd, in the Gibson-Todd damage suit, recently decided in favor of Miss Gibson, in the Law and Equity Court, have not yet decided whether they will take an appeal, and it is hardly likely that they will do so until just before the thirty-day limit, in which they can file an appeal, has expired.

WILL LET HER PAY.

When Mr. Todd was asked by a reporter whether he would permit Dr. W. E. Hatcher to pay the costs of the suit and damages awarded Miss Gibson, he replied that he would, and he had not heard that Dr. Hatcher had changed his mind.

He said that if no appeal is taken, and Dr. Hatcher does not appear to pay the damages, that the money will come out of his pocket; that the amount will be made up by friends.

THE CULPABLE IS TO BE FOUND.

In the event of a new trial being granted, it is stated that the plaintiff will have a much stronger case. According to a rumor, which has not been verified, a lady has been found who says that she made the remark, which is attributed to Miss Gibson.

TIMELESS SUGGESTIONS.

The following letter is explanatory:

Emory and Henry College,

Emory, Va., Nov. 2, 1895.

Dear Sirs—I offer five suggestions with reference to the rebuilding of the buildings of the State University. All true Virginians ought to be able to follow them.

Please let the alumni association through the United States call a mass-meeting for the purpose of raising funds.

Second. Let the ladies in all of our towns and cities organize, and by means of bazaars, concerts, entertainments, etc., raise funds.

Third. Let the teachers and children of all of our public schools in the State join in the raising of funds. These children will be the future sons of the University.

Fourth. Let all the students of our colleges and academies join in the raising of funds.

Please let every newspaper in the State agitate this scheme of everybody giving and open the columns of their paper for cash contributions and subscriptions by citizens of their community and be aggressive.

They should start the ball to rolling. While everybody feels like giving, let every one put that feeling into something more substantial. The University needs $100,000. Let us work and get it.

Emory and Henry College students and professors were all greatly grieved when they heard of the terrible calamity which had occurred. They will raise a small fund at least to help restore the grand old University to her former greatness and grandeur.

J. L. JARMAN.

THE "WAR OF THE ROSES" BAZAAR IN FULL SWING.

The Beautiful Drill and Marriage Last Night—The "Lottery Ticket" To-Night. To-Morrow Night "Gypsy Carnival."

Hohenlohe presided. The meeting lasted several hours. It is reported that the Turkish ambassador told Prince Hohenlohe that unless the pressure which England is exerting upon Turkey was relaxed, the Sultan might become a victim to domestic revolt. The report further says that the ambassador begged Prince Hohenlohe for assurances that Germany would not side with England in bringing the Sultan into a dangerous road. Prince Hohenlohe was unable to satisfy the ambassador, whereupon the latter left Berlin abruptly. Just before leaving, he informed the proprietor of the ambassadorial hotel, where he was living, that he did not intend to return to Berlin for a long time, and nominated Rifaat Bey Charge d'Affaires in his absence.

It is reported that the Cabinet Council on Sunday discussed the Turkish question exhaustively, and finally decided the matter to the Kaiser for his decision.

COLOGNE, Nov. 10.—The Gazette published a dispatch from Berlin, asserting that Tewlik Pasha, Turkish ambassador to Germany, was recalled to Constantinople, in order that he might be appointed to a high position in the Turkish capital.

DR. SMITH REPORTS SUCCESS.

Dr. Smith entered Africa on the eastern coast, about a year ago last June, to push across the country of the Galleries and sand, to two lakes which have been recently discovered by another expedition, and, from thence on to the Nianzias, his object being to carry out and complete the line of exploration from the lakes to the east coast, a distance of several hundred miles.
